Pollie Pedal

For over 15 years, my annual 'Pollie Pedal' cycling ride has raised funds for charity.

To date, over $3,763,000 has been raised for good causes including: Carers Australia; the Australian Paralympic Team; Royal Flying Doctors Service; medical research into children's leukaemia, breast cancer, diabetes, prostate cancer; the Poche Centre for Indigenous Health at Sydney University and Ronald McDonald House.

In 2013, Pollie Pedal raised $762,097.68 for Carers Australia (as my national charity) and $87,780.00 for the Manly Women's Shelter (as my local electorate charity).

The total amount raised for charity in 2013 was $849,877.83.

I have already committed to both Carers Australia and the Manly Women's Shelter remaining the Pollie Pedal national and local charities in 2014.

Pro Bono Legal Counsel

As previously disclosed, I have received pro bono legal advice in a defamation case brought by Mr John Setka. The case is ongoing.

Legal representation is being provided by Mr Michael Wheelahan (Senior Counsel), Mr Timothy J.F. McEvoy (Counsel) and Arnold Bloch Leibler (Lawyers).

Section 11 – Gifts

Since my last advice to the Register of Members' Interests, I have received the following gifts that require disclosure:

1. A coloured lithograph by US painter Ed Ruscha, "Column with Speed Lines" from the President of the United States of America, the Hon Barack Obama. As the value of this gift is above the allowable limit, I have advised the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet that it will be displayed in my Canberra office. At the end of my term as Prime Minister, it will remain in the Canberra office as part of the Prime Minister's suite;
2. A pair of framed signed boxing gloves from champion boxer Mr Danny Green. Mr Green kindly signed a pair of gloves for an official gift to United States Senate Majority Leader, Senator the Hon Harry Reid, who is known as the "Fighter on the Hill" and formerly a keen amateur boxer.

An additional set of gloves was given to me by Mr Green.

As the value of this gift is above the allowable limit, I have advised the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet that it will be displayed in my Canberra office. At the end of my term as Prime Minister, it will be given to Mr Les Twentyman's charity, the "20th Man Fund" to auction with proceeds to support disadvantaged youth; and

3. A set of silver cufflinks from Secretary of State, Mr John Kerry. I have retained this gift and provided a cheque in the amount of $52.05 to the Collector of Public Monies.

Section 14 – Memberships and Patronages

I have continued the tradition established under former Prime Ministers and accepted the position as honorary patron for the ‘Fighter World’ military aviation museum in Williamstown, NSW.

My wife has accepted the position as patron of the Deb Bailey Motor Neurone Foundation.

Please update my register accordingly.
