Dear Mr Elder

On the 10th and 11th of March I was provided with the use of the aircraft of the Foreign Minister of the United Arab Emirates to enable travel to Tunisia, via Egypt.

This enabled me to meet my new Egyptian counterpart briefly in Cairo. It also saved on the cost of planned travel from the UAE to Tunis and return.

While I am advised by officials that this does not fall within the scope of the Register of Members' Interests, I write to you in the interests of full disclosure.

Thank you for your assistance.

Dear Mr Elder

In the course of my work as Foreign Minister I am required to travel abroad in an official capacity on behalf of the Australian Government.

In doing so, some of my activities are funded by host governments.

In this travel I am representing the Australian national interest, therefore I do not propose to declare such official hospitality as I do not believe they give rise to a conflict of interest.

I am advised that this is consistent with the practice of former foreign ministers Downer and Smith.

Thank you for your assistance.
